Holiday wishes

As we enter this sacred time in the Jewish calendar, we extend our heartfelt wishes to all our friends, families, residents, tenants, trustees, and volunteers. From Wednesday 1 October to Tuesday 2 October, we mark Kol Nidre and Yom Kippur, a time of reflection, forgiveness, and spiritual renewal. We wish you all a meaningful and easy fast. Looking ahead, from Monday 6 October to Wednesday 8 October, we joyfully welcome Succot - a festival of gratitude, harvest, and togetherness. We also look forward to celebrating Simchat Torah with joy and dancing as we conclude and restart the annual Torah reading cycle.

May these days bring peace, unity, and blessings to our entire community.
