10 Great Reasons to become a Belong nurse

Your life, your pace, your way.

1

Great career progression opportunities

From frontline nursing to management and specialist areas such as Admiral Nursing, Belong provides a range of opportunities for people to develop their skills and professional interests.

2

Pioneering household model

Developed to make a break from institutional models of care in a homely environment, with no uniforms creating barriers between people and those they support.

3

Meaningful relationships

The household setting promotes continuity of care and ensures positive relationships are nurtured with residents and their families.

4

State-of-the-art environment

Our purpose-built villages are fitted out to the highest standard and designed to maximise independence for people with dementia.

5

Innovative partnership working

Award-winning initiatives such as Hospice in your care home, arts and heritage partnerships and rehabilitation through exercise have seen Belong win national recognition from the CQC, NHS and at Buckingham Palace.

6

Reward and recognition

Competitive pay, pension and benefits schemes, staff discounts on village facilities such as bistro, gym and hair salon, as well as awards and a culture of celebrating our people.

7

Culture and values

Belong puts the customer at the heart of everything it does and is a values-driven organisation, living out compassion, respect, team work and honesty in its service provision.

8

An award-winning organisation

Belong and its people have been recognised at local, national and international level for its innovative approach and positive outcomes.

9

Continuing professional development

Providing an incredibly supportive environment, Belong is a gold accredited Investor in People and invests in extensive training and development opportunities for its people, including its innovative and award-winning dementia training programmes. Support is provided towards revalidation.

10

Making a difference

Belong's vibrant villages are places where everyone makes a positive impact, promoting active lifestyles, independence and wellbeing for the whole community.
